

HEAR ME LORD by Karen A. Giammarino

Hear me, Lord
Hold me close each time I pray
Draw me near
That I might know you more
Hear me, Lord
Guide me should I lose my way
Take my heart
That I might know you more

To a place I still remember
In a world that's gone too far
Where love casts out the darkness
I'm close to where you are
I'll meet your Grace at Calvary's Cross
Your love will find me where
I'm nearer to forever
And far from all the pain
That brought me there

Hear Me Lord
Lead Me in Your Righteousness
Draw me near
That I might know you more
Hear me Lord
Show me should I lose my way
Take my heart
That I might know you more

Where dreams become tomorrows
That yesterday's can't claim
If they were filled with sorrows
My future's not the same
You've taken every broken torn down piece of what was me
And held them closely to your heart
Until you set me free

Hear me, Lord
Hold me close...each time I pray
Draw me near so I might know you
Take my heart so I might know you
More

Hear Me Lord
